BELLYDANCER ACTRESS MODEL

Add a touch of the exotic Middle East to your next event

Profile

Sameera (also known as Frances Harrison) is a professional belly dancer. She has studied dance since the age of seven and has a background in ballet, jazz and yoga. She has also been a dance instructor for the Canterbury Children's Theatre. In recent years she discovered the intoxicating rhythms of Middle Eastern dance, in particular belly dancing.

Her dance style is dynamic yet elegant and she has a special ability to connect with her audiences, enhancing the enjoyment of those watching her performances. Sameera is known for her unique and fabulous Cabaret costumes designed by herself.

Sameera continues to pursue her interest in Classical Egyptian and Turkish styles by studying with talented teachers and attending workshops. In 2004 she performed in the Egyptian Odyssey concert which featured internationally acclaimed Hossam and Serena Ramzy. In 2006 she performed in Amera's NZ concert.

When she's not performing belly dance Frances works as a public relations advisor.

Entertaining at your special event

If you're looking for something entertaining, tasteful and a little bit different ...invite Sameera to perform for you.

Sameera's specialties include dramatic veil dances, cane and playing zills (Arabic finger cymbals). Her exciting solo performances are appropriate for the entire family, all ages and occasions.

Suggested events include:

Corporate Functions, Weddings & Birthdays, Community Events, Night-club/Theatre Shows, Music videos, Dance showcases, Hen parties, Private parties.

She will also dance in restaurants where space allows for dramatic choreographies.

Sameera is available for bookings in the Greater Auckland area and will work with you to ensure you get the performance you want. Contact her via email or mobile to discuss your requirements.
